Dear Mr. Barnes,

We are pleased to formally invite you to meet with our key stakeholders on Friday, July 19, 2025, to discuss the upcoming solar infrastructure project. As the selected contractor for this initiative, your presence will be essential in outlining the proposed implementation strategy and addressing any technical or logistical concerns.

This meeting presents an excellent opportunity for collaboration, transparency, and shared vision toward our mutual goal of delivering sustainable energy solutions. We believe your insights will be highly valuable to all parties involved.

The meeting will be held at our Bountiful office, and full logistics will be sent upon your confirmation.

We look forward to your participation and to the impactful work ahead.

Sincerely,
Jeff Donald
